ATR VERDICT: Abel Handy had shaped like a winner in waiting when third at Chelmsford and second at Ripon last month, although he was disappointing at Doncaster 19 days ago and must bounce back now 3lb higher. He should appreciate the switch to a track where he can dominate, but might just be pipped close to home by BOSSIPOP, just as he was at Ripon two starts ago. Tim Easterby's charge is 1lb worse off at the weights compared to then, but has proven before that he can be competitive off similar marks. The unexposed Melody King is also noted.

Top Tip: BOSSIPOP (3)

ATR VERDICT: Fiery Breath failed to build on his reappearance at Yarmouth when fifth at Windsor last month and has a bit to prove despite a tempting handicap mark of 55. Independence Day is on a career-low mark and shaped with promise when second at Thirsk recently, but DELEGATE THE LADY is in fine form currently and can claim a hat-trick. She proved herself on turf when striking at Windsor last time out and, only up 3lb, could take some pegging back.

ATR VERDICT: Otago wasn't disgraced when fourth on reappearance here last month and has Ryan Moore on board now for the second time, while Batchelor Boy was consistent on the all-weather throughout the winter and showed ability on turf when last seen finishing third here three weeks ago. Rae Guest has his string in fine form, though, and his POETS DANCE is an intriguing contender. Fourth over C&D recently in a better race, she doesn't have many miles on the clock and can double her career tally.

ATR VERDICT: THE DANCING POET has acquitted himself well on both his starts at Haydock this season and Brian Ellison's gelding remains unexposed on his third attempt over this trip. Deinonychus went up 7lb for his recent Haydock victory and he is entitled to be in the mix once again, while Sea Art, who placed at Musselburgh last week, and George Mallory, who arrives having had wind surgery, complete the shortlist.

ATR VERDICT: John 'Shark' Hanlon should have a good handle on what's required here and his Stowaway gelding CROBALLY BOY is the suggestion. Another big player, Curlew Hill (up in distance), was well behind Hanlon's impressive Tipperary scorer Hallowed Star. Movements in the market should be informative then, and Crobally Boy can surely only come forward from his debut third placing at Kilbeggan over a fortnight ago. Going back in trip mightn't be ideal with the selection as he looked 'a galloper' at the County Westmeath venue but the uphill finish here should suit him well. Ruaille Buaille is back at Downpatrick for her second outing after finishing third here over a year back – June 2019. That was no bad contest and the daughter of Salutino ought to be bang there if stripping fit and well off the lengthy break. Hanlon's partner Rachel, is a daughter of Ronnie O'Neill of Whytemount Stud in Kells in Kilkenny. The O'Neills bred Ruaille Buaille so as stated already the Shark is in a decent position to weigh up this contest and the betting may give a proper steer.

ATR VERDICT: CARIBENO stayed on to finish third on his handicap debut at Chepstow last week and the switch of headgear to a visor could make the difference required with Luke Morris back in the saddle. Barney Bullet made a winning return to action at Musselburgh on his first start for Rebecca Menzies and is an obvious threat along with Quoteline Direct, who finished third at Beverley last month.

ATR VERDICT: THANK YOU NEXT displayed plenty of promise when finishing third to a pair who had previously run at Royal Ascot on her debut at Windsor earlier in the month. With that experience now under her belt, the daughter of No Nay Never should take plenty of beating. Immaculate cost 82,000gns as a yearling and is from the family of Jacqueline Quest, while Yaghaalya is another newcomer to note.
