ATR VERDICT: It could be a case of third-time lucky for GET IT. Following on from a cracking debut performance at Newmarket, he emerged with lots of credit when coming from stall one (the 'wrong' side) to finish fourth in the Windsor Castle at Royal Ascot and that form has been franked on numerous occasions since. Happy Romance finished fifth in a strong renewal of the Queen Mary and he warrants respect representing a stable that have enjoyed plenty of success in this race in the past, while Mahale, Enduring and Tinochio are others to note.

Top Tip: GET IT (7)

ATR VERDICT: KEEP BUSY only found the talented Art Power too good at Royal Ascot last time out and could continue her progress here for John Quinn. The three-year-old holds an entry in the Group 1 Flying Five in Ireland in September, and must be held in high regard at home. Jovial was second in Listed company at Haydock last month and the third won in France last week, while Shades Of Blue drops from Group 1 company and is also taken seriously.

ATR VERDICT: FAYLAQ shaped better than his finishing position may suggest when sixth at Newmarket on his return to action and the drop back from 1m4f appears unlikely to be an issue for William Haggas' colt. He progressed nicely through the handicap ranks last season and is open to further improvement. Global Giant didn't get the best of trips when fourth at Sandown earlier in the month and he remains open to progression on his third start for John Gosden, while a gelding operation might aid the cause of Prince Eiji, who ran with plenty of credit when fourth in the Wolferton at Royal Ascot.

Top Tip: FAYLAQ (3)

Watch out for: GLOBAL GIANT (5)

ATR VERDICT: STRAIT OF HORMUZ made a winning switch to the handicap ranks on his first outing for Jedd O'Keeffe at Haydock last month and could have plenty more to come in this sphere. He is backed to see off Star Shield, who has been knocking on the door and rates as the pick of David O'Meara's duo. Ryan Moore catches the eye aboard Ulshaw Bridge who has won here in the past, while Sucellus could be one for each-way players.

ATR VERDICT: EMMA LAMB wasn't beaten far when second at Uttoxeter earlier this month and the six-year-old is backed to go one better now following a fair 3lb rise. Local Affair was a clear-cut seven-length winner when last seen and is respected, returning off an 8lb higher mark. Course-and-distance winner Grania O'Malley is back down to his last winning rating, with Bossiney Bay potentially sharper for his spin over this track and trip earlier in the week.

ATR VERDICT: SHAWAAMEKH was behind a couple of these rivals on his reappearance at Redcar, but showed the benefit of that run when keeping on for third over a furlong shorter at Pontefract and could be primed to strike here. He is preferred ahead of Northernpowerhouse, who had the selection and Arbalet behind when successful at Redcar on his reappearance, while Documenting was not disgraced at Royal Ascot and could go well. Triple Distilled has a cracking record over this C&D and could be an each-way price.

ATR VERDICT: DUBIOUS AFFAIR arrives here having won her last three and the Frankel filly has been in imperious form since joining the handicap ranks for Charlie Fellowes this summer. She was an emphatic scorer at Doncaster last time and appears to be nowhere near her ceiling following a further 6lb rise. Sweet Celebration was going in search of back-to-back victories when beaten a neck at York earlier this month and is only 1lb higher now, while Alan King's Chicago Doll is respected following her recent Haydock second.
