ATR VERDICT: DEFENCE GIRL has shaped with real promise in her short career so far and was only beaten a neck at Bath last time. The form of that second was given a huge boost when the winner, Establish, landed a competitive handicap here during the July Festival, and the First Defence filly can open her account now. Declaring Love took the step up to a mile in her stride when second over course and distance earlier this month and could have more to come, while Kempton winner Maurimo and John Gosden's newcomer Bizzi Lizzi have to be given plenty of respect.

ATR VERDICT: TSAR was given a confident ride when striking over this trip at Yarmouth three weeks ago and is expected to defy a 6lb rise to notch a quick double. Tell Me All picked up minor money in a competitive contest at Windsor last month and has viable place claims off this 1lb higher perch, though the main danger to the selection may be Johan, who got up in the final half-furlong and won cosily on his seasonal return at Newbury.

ATR VERDICT: ORBAAN was a Listed winner in France a couple of years ago and he was not beaten far by Barney Roy on his final outing in 2019. The son of Invincible Spirit won impressively on his second start for these connections over C&D earlier in the month and, off just a 4lb higher mark, he has to be given the utmost respect. Hartswood is an unexposed three-year-old and Richard Fahey's gelding was not beaten far at all over 7f here recently. Others to consider are Greenside, Tadleel and Elwazir.

ATR VERDICT: ENABLE's whole campaign centres around trying to regain the Arc, so although she came up short against match-fit and classy frontrunner Ghaiyyath on her reappearance in the Eclipse, connections had no reason to be disheartened. John Gosden's star mare is entitled to come on for that outing and although her principal target remains Longchamp in early October, she is expected to repeat her 2017 and 2019 successes in this contest before returning to Paris. Japan finished behind the selection in last year's Arc and the Eclipse more recently but could see off stablemates Anthony Van Dyck and Sovereign in the battle for second.

ATR VERDICT: Everything points to a massive run from FRONTISPIECE, who is one from one at this venue and ran right up to somewhere near his best when chasing home the smart Country at Newmarket two weeks ago. He is entitled to improve for that first outing since November and with Ryan Moore aboard once more, he looks sure to go close off a 11lb higher mark. Mankayan and Power Of States were split by a subsequent winner when first and third respectively at Doncaster earlier in the month and both have their chance here, while the three-year-old Media Storm also merits consideration receiving weight all around.

ATR VERDICT: TABAAHY caught the eye when denied a clear run at Chepstow on Tuesday and can have his effort upgraded considerably. He'll appreciate the return to 6f and could be ready to strike if enjoying a smoother trip. Medicine Jack appears well treated on his Irish form and ran his best race for his current stable when runner-up at Ayr latest. A first-time visor could assist him, while Ben Curtis is also back in the saddle. Roundhay Park has dropped to an attractive mark and ran well over track and trip last weekend, while the consistent Big Lachie should also be thereabouts.

ATR VERDICT: MESHAKEL gets the tentative vote in what looks a competitive nursery. The form of his third-placed effort at Ayr last time looks solid, with the winner running well in Listed company and fourth scoring readily since, and the booking of William Buick is a big positive. Star Cactus had a subsequent winner two places behind when runner-up at Newmarket and she is likely to show up well again, while Collinsbay and Grantley add further spice to the race.

ATR VERDICT: WAITNSEE ran a fine race on her debut over fences at Killarney recently and with race fitness on her side, she can be expected to go close here. A winner over flights at Ballinrobe last year, the daughter of Arctic Cosmos finished third on her first try over the larger obstacles at Killarney. Dime A Dozen finished three and a half lengths in front of the selection at the Co Kerry venue and she since gave the form a boost by winning easily at Tipperary last Sunday. Andalusia is the sole Willie Mullins trained representative on the card and it would come as little surprise if she were to prevail on her debut over fences. The daughter of Martaline has some smart form to her name and made the breakthrough on her most recent start at Clonmel in March. Ran Rite has been knocking on the door of late and has definite claims, while others for the shortlist are Boro Tari and Whenurgoodurgood.

Top Tip: WAITNSEE (11)
