ATR VERDICT: Sweet Joanna went close on her introduction, only beaten a neck over this distance at Thirsk last summer. However, she may have to play second fiddle to the match-fit FREEDOM FLYER, who shaped nicely to finish fourth over 7f at Haydock on debut and could appreciate the drop back in trip. Cotai Again completes the shortlist on the back of some decent two-year-old form and this is much easier than the Sandown handicap he took part in last time.

ATR VERDICT: BILLESDON BROOK has proved her 66/1 shock in the 2018 1000 Guineas was no fluke on more than one occasion, landing a second Group 1 in last year's Sun Chariot before going agonisingly close to a third in the Falmouth a couple of weeks ago. She is suited by these conditions and can confirm her superiority over Newmarket fifth Agincourt, who was pipped in the Duke Of Cambridge before that. Miss O Connor is four from four but faces her stiffest to test to date on her comeback.

ATR VERDICT: Gold Wand readily brushed aside subsequent winner Portrush on her penultimate outing and she can easily be forgiven a lacklustre performance in the Investec Oaks last time. Dropping back in trip and returning to a more conventional track should see her run well, but FRANCONIA could prove a tough nut to crack for John Gosden, who saddled the winner of this contest 12 months ago. She was mightily impressive when winning a Listed contest at Newbury on her seasonal reappearance, form which has received a number of boosts since, and looks a top-level filly in the making. Godolphin's Beautiful Illusion holds each-way claims.

ATR VERDICT: More Beautiful was all the rage for the Queen Mary on the back of an impressive debut success, but she wasn't quick enough and finished ninth. The rise from 5f should be right up her street, but CAROLINE DALE was ahead of her at the Royal meeting and has since proved that 100/1 third was no fluke by getting off the mark at Windsor. Her stablemate Santosha almost sprung a 50/1 surprise in the Duchess Of Cambridge and won't be allowed to slip under the radar this time.

ATR VERDICT: Campari was only beaten a nose in a competitive heat when looking for back-to-back victories at Sandown earlier this month and the booking of Ryan Moore catches the eye aboard Roger Charlton's gelding. However, the way TIGER CRUSADE tanked into contention before getting on the scoresheet on his handicap debut at Doncaster sticks in the memory, and there could be plenty more to come from the 215,000-euro No Nay Never colt. Kinsman opened his account in workmanlike fashion at Wolverhampton, but William Haggas' twice-raced son of Exceed And Excell is worthy of plenty of respect now switched to handicaps.

ATR VERDICT: After making a successful debut at Redcar, the well-bred CONFIDE was a warm order to follow up at Thirsk. He could only manage third there but was giving away lumps of weight to a couple of promising three-year-olds, and he starts handicap life off an attractive rating. Egrecio also enters the handicap ranks on the back of some pleasing efforts and may also be nicely treated. Last-start scorers Star Of Valour, Golden Force and Tangled are just three others to consider in a competitive affair.

ATR VERDICT: Zarzyeni, You'resobautiful and Flaming Princess have all acquitted themselves well in some hot contests so far in their careers and add a touch of class to proceedings. However, it may be best to side with a proven handicapper and NOT NOW ZEB fits that bill. He bounced back to his best when getting the better of Half Nutz (second) at Navan earlier this month and is backed to follow up here. Big Gossey made it back-to-back victories when scoring over 6f here last month and appears to be on an upward curve, while Lady Maura opened her account with an emphatic win when dropped back to this trip at Navan and looks a player once again.

ATR VERDICT: It is very hard to oppose NA BLIANTA BEO, who was far from disgraced when finishing fourth in a Listed race at Naas two starts ago. When last seen, the daughter of Invincible Spirit was only beaten a neck in a maiden at the same venue and the winner of that contest was second to Millisle in a Group 3 earlier in the week. Call Of The Jungle has made the frame on four of her six starts to date and she should be thereabouts once again. I Am Thunder and Boundless Power are others with valid form claims, while Mudawy merits respect on his debut.

ATR VERDICT: Master Matt ran well when placed in the Scurry last time and is expected to show up well off this 1lb lower mark, though narrow preference is for TIDE OF TIME, who wore down the thriving Strong Johnson to score at Navan earlier this month and could feasibly defy a 6lb rise. Inflection Point opened his account at Bellewstown recently and likely has more to offer, while Boughtinthedark has been in great order for Denis Hogan since the restart and cannot be left out of calculations either.
